

QUIZ OF MODULE 4

QUIZ: Garment Reuse and Sewing Techniques

1. What are the four principal aspects to have in consideration when you are choosing a piece of clothing to reuse?

- a) fabric quality; easy dismantling; dimension and shape; look out for wear marks
- b) fabric color; easy sewing; size; look out for wear marks
- c) fabric quality; easy sewing; pattern; brand
- d) fabric texture; easy dismantling; trimmings; look out for wear marks

2. What do we call applying a temporary stitch by hand or machine?

- a) Embroidering
- b) Basting
- c) Hemming
- d) Darning

3. Fill in the blank in the following sentence: "Considering the fabric grain, a perfect or true _____ has to be exactly 45° from the selvage/raw edge."

- a) Grainline
- b) Cross Grain
- c) Bias
- d) Weave

4. When combining different fabrics, specifically light with heavy, what should we pay attention to?

- a) Use a straight stitch with a walking foot and test on swatches to adjust stitch length and foot pressure if necessary.
- b) Use walking foot and lower stitch length.
- c) Remove decorative elements from the seam allowances and use perpendicular pins.
- d) Use staystitching to stabilize the fabric and hand basting.

5. When drawing a jacket lining how much seam allowance should we add on the center back to make the box pleat necessary for ease?

- a) 5 cm
- b) 10 cm
- c) 3,5 cm
- d) 2,5 cm

Answers: d) S 'a (7 'c (E 'q (E 'e (l